

MANU BRAZO

Saxophone

Manu Brazo was selected to join the Tillet Trust's Young Artists Platform in March 2018. The Spanish award-winning saxophonist made his concerto debut in the UK with Guildford Symphony Orchestra in 2016 and since then he has performed with the London Sinfonietta and London City Orchestras amongst others.

In 2017 Manu won the Royal College of Music Saxophone Competition 2017 and the Guildford Symphony Orchestra Competition for Young Soloists 2017. The same year he was selected to take part in the London Sinfonietta Academy 2017, and was also invited to join the Britten-Pears Young Artists Programme 2018, which will give him the opportunity to play at the Snape Proms under the baton of Marin Alsop in August this year.

Manu, whose performance was described as “100% colossal and amazing” when he appeared on Classic FM, plays regularly in the UK as well as back in his native Spain both as a soloist and with Vario Duo alongside pianist Prajna Indrawati. His future performances include concerts at Wigmore Hall, St Martin in the Fields, St James Piccadilly and the Aegean Arts Festival in Crete.

He is currently finishing a Master in Performance at the Royal College of Music of London studying with Kyle Horch. He is an RCM scholar supported by Dr Michael West. Manu is also a Talent-Unlimited and Concordia Foundation Artist.

Young Artists
Platform